PRESS BRIEF

GTAP Leader, Dr Isaac Kalua Green, today joined mourners in Kadhiambo Village in Central Kisumu Ward, Kisumu County in mourning the loss of Harrison Ajwang popularly known as YY. The deceased, a renowned entrepreneur, is a brother to Tobias Kajwang who was a GTAP MCA candidate in Central Kisumu Ward.

While comforting the family and thousands of mourners with a message of hope, Dr Kalua Green sent a message of peace and patience to Kenyans as the country awaits the presidential results. He insisted on the need of brotherhood even after the elections.

He reminded Kenyans that the Nation is bigger than any general election.

“We are entrenching a good culture, a culture where losers concede defeat long before final results are announced. This is good for our democracy, an indication that we are maturing. This practice enhances harmony and should be embraced”

He urged Kenyans to now hold those they elected to account for all the promises they made. He also asked those elected to embrace their competitors as they work on development matters for God’s glory.
